What the Society for University Extension

Dr. Vaughau Will Lecture on Bacteriology, Prof. Demmon on Shakespeare and Prof. Adams on Railroads,

Some time during this week or the first of next a meeting of the directors of the society for university extension will be called by President Butterfield to consider the pian of work for the coming year. It is expected that there will be a sarge increase in the membership and that the society which began so favorably last year will be nearly if not quite doubled in strength. It is the purpose of the board of directors of the society to give three courses of lectures, with six fectures in each course. Then as many extra lectures tention of the society to sell enough season tickets at two dollars each to ber 17. pay the expenses of the courses and to Prof. C. Vaughan of the university, on bacteriology, with special reference to the choters and typhoid fever focalli. Prof. I. N. Dernmon will follow with a course of az lectures on Shakespeare. The subjects for these lectures have not yet been selected.

Professor Adams' Loctures. Prof. H. C. Adams will close the course with six lectures on political economy. Professor Adams has made a specialty of what might be termed internal economy, the relations of railroads and commerce to the development of the country and the civilization. He is regarded as an authority on questions pertaining to interstate Headaches Of all kinds positively and international commerce, and has American notory. Prof. McLaugh had added much to his reputation as an historian. The society would like, if possible, to secure a series of lectures from Prof. Martin L. D'Ooge, who City lodge No. 86, F. & A. THE AGE OF Specialists and Experts.

What a physician can do when he de votes his whole attention to one subject is fully exemplified in the numerous Catarrh cures Dr. Rankin is making every day. The domain of medicine is too vast to be handled by one man and it has ever been the history, that to achieve perfection one must study one thing only. That a physician may learn how to cure catarrh is fully proven in the numerous testimontals Dr. Rankin is placing before the public. These testimonials from residents of Grand Rapids are on file at the office and open to the inspection of anyone,

Patients troubled with Catarrh who begin treatment before October 1 will be treated for Five Dollars a month until cured. Medicines furnished free. Dr. Rankin will give free con sultation and examination and one free treatment as he has hitherto done.

L. R. McCready, No. 351 Lyon street. R. McCready says: "I had been gradually los ing my hearing from Catarra for several years, and in fact several physicians told me two years ago that I would become entirely deaf. It was a great source of anxiety to me as well as an annoyange. I had catarrh as I was troubled with hawking, spitting and severe headacties. I had tried so many physicians that I was discouraged, but after talking with some of Dr. Rankin's patients I was encouraged to try him. When I first began treatment I could only hear a watch at two inches from one ear and four from the other. disappeared, and in fact I am improved be youd my expectation, in every way.
